

ARE ANY OF THESE STORIES FAMILIAR?

Kevin's Story

In short, he was tired of feeling like he had no control over his life and being forced to work so hard for what was someone else's dream.

John's Story

Concerned his Social Security and pension would dry up after retirement age. He and his wife wanted to travel and enjoy their retirement years,

Beth's Story

Her current job just is not working for her anymore. She sees more of the airport than her home.

Doug's Story

How can he think about self-sufficiency when he can barely repay his monthly loan?"

Emily's Story

She never has any time to spend with her kids. All her energy goes into her work, and she misses watching them grow.

